Miss Lee asked her 9B English class to write a modern Fairy story. Nels Olson wrote the following:
"Once upon a time a newspaper received the news dispatch from Southern Kansas that a boy climbed a corn stock to see how the sky and clouds looked and that now the stalk is growing faster than the boy can climb down. The hours below the stalk is growing faster than the boy can climb a down. The boy is clear out of sight. Three men have taken the contract if or cutting down the stalk with axes to save the boy a horrible death by starving, but the stalk grows so rapidly that they can't hit twice in the same place. The boy is living on green corn alone and has already thrown over four bushels of cobs. Even if the corn holds out there is still dayer that the how will reach still danger that the boy will reach a height where he will be frozen to death. There is some talk of attempt-ing to rescue him with an aeroplane."
